Educational loans are to be used for educational expenses only.

Please note: your Stafford loans must be disbursed in equal amounts for each term you are enrolled.

Subsidized Stafford Loan – These loans are based on financial need. The federal government pays interest on Subsidized Stafford Loans while you are enrolled at least half-time, during your grace period, and during authorized deferments. When you enter repayment (normally six months after you graduate or leave school) you are responsible for paying the interest that accrues on your loan throughout repayment and any period of forbearance.

Unsubsidized Stafford Loan – These loans are not based on financial need. Unlike the Subsidized Stafford Loan, you are responsible for all interest that accrues on your loan. Interest on Unsubsidized Stafford Loans begins accruing at your expense once the loan funds are disbursed and during grace, deferment, and forbearance periods. Unpaid interest will be added to the principal balance of your loan (capitalized).
